Building a Caring Community

Our 100% employee-owned company has been rooted in Milwaukee's far North side community since shortly after our incorporation in 1977. Our longevity in this Milwaukee neighborhood has fueled our employee owners' dedication to creating an environment that helps uplift our co-owner colleagues, our customers, and our community. "For PFlow, it's more than just making the world's best material lifts – it's about building a caring community, one that provides family-supporting jobs to our employee-owners, produces quality, long-lasting products for our customers (right here in Milwaukee), and fosters a company culture that, 'feels good about doing good' while giving back to those in Milwaukee that could use a hand-up," said PFlow's President, Pat Koppa.
